

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

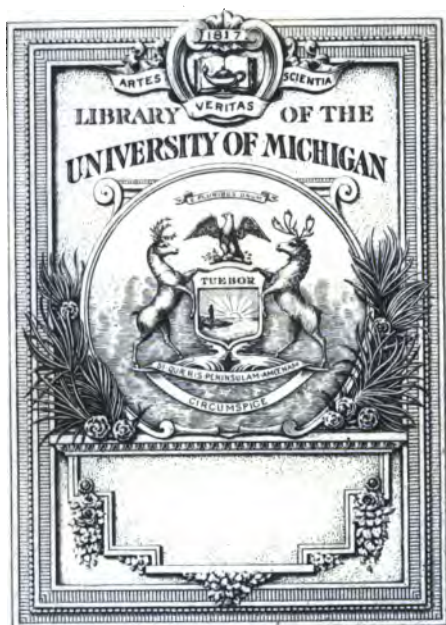

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

*The cash receipts from the sale of Agricultural College land during the ten months from Nov. 30, 1870, to this date, were $20,101 53. But the Agricultural College Fund receipts were not, until Act No. 63, Laws of 1871, p. 87 took effect, held or treated in the manner of the other Educational Funds. The passage of that act, however, brought the receipts of this Fund, under the operation of the same laws as applied to other funds of like character. Hence the aggregate receipts of the Agricultural College Fund are now placed in the statement, as in the text.

DIRECT TAXES.

The net receipts¹ to the State Treasury from this source, since the close of the last fiscal year, amount to $482,418 53, being in excess of the amount of State tax apportioned for 1870 by $87,173 56.

There was returned² to the Auditor General of the several taxes levied in 1870, $748,813 87. Of this amount, $60,334 18 was rejected, and the remainder, $688,479 69, passed to the credit of the proper counties.

The apportionment of the State taxes³ for the year 1871 was made upon the taxable valuation of the several counties as determined by the State Board of Equalization⁴ at its meeting in August of the present year. The several amounts and the acts authorizing the apportionment thereof, are set forth in the following

NEW CAPITOL.

The disbursements under the New Capitol appropriation¹ amount to $843 15.

ST. MARY'S FALLS SHIP CANAL.

Since November 30, 1870, there has been paid into the State Treasury from the earnings of the St. Mary's Falls Ship Canal,

$19,467 21. From this amount there have been payments as follows:

There remains of the amount paid into the Treasury, $380 92. The payment of $10,322 23, as stated above, extinguishes the indebtedness of the Canal Fund to the counties, and the demands against this fund hereafter will be limited to the current interest upon the Canal Loan, incidental expenses, and the accumulation of such an amount as will meet the payment of the yet outstanding $81,000 00 Canal Bonds, at their maturity on the first day of July, 1879.

SUSPENSE ACCOUNT.

Under a settlement made by the Board of State Auditors,¹ as provided by Joint Resolution No. 23, Laws of 1869, there has been passed to the credit of the Suspense Account, $19,622 19; $5,475 00 of which amount was in cash; the balance, $14,147 19, in lands. The record of the disposal of these lands will be kept through the "Dewey Asset Lands" account, opened upon the books in this office for this purpose. This credit of $19,622 19 reduces the balance of the Suspense Account from $33,001 31, at which it stood November 30, 1870, to $13,379 12.

MORTGAGES.

Under the provisions of an act entitled "An act or organize and regulate Banking Associations," approved March 15, 1837, a large number of mortgages were executed, or assigned to the Auditor General, as collateral security to the debts created by the several banking associations organized and regulated by said act.

The Supreme Court of this State, in Green v. Graves, 1 Douglass, 351, declared the act under which these mortgages were executed to be unconstitutional and void.

The Legislature of 1871, by Joint Resolution No. 30, instructed the Auditor General to discharge all mortgages given under said act of 1837, or the amendments thereto, upon the application of the owner of any land so mortgaged. The Legislature of 1850 had previously, by Act No. 233, 1850, directed the cancelment of these mortgages upon application of the proper parties. Since the passage of the joint resolution of 1871, a few of the mortgages have been discharged as directed thereby.

Appended to this report is a list¹ and abstract of all mortgages of this class now remaining on file in the Auditor General's office, and subject to discharge upon application of the owner of any land so mortgaged.

MINING COMPANIES.

There has been collected from the Mining companies doing business in this State, taxes to the amount of $8,984 63. Except $5 00, this amount has been paid by the Copper Mining companies. Of the producing Iron Mining companies, only the Magnetic has reported as required by law, and hence, except the Magnetic, have avoided the payment of any tax. Until the law is so amended as to direct the levy of a tax upon the Iron Mining companies upon such data as can be obtained from other sources in all cases where the companies fail to report the product of the mines, there is no prospect of getting from this class of Mining companies the taxes directed by law to be collected.

ACCOUNTS WITH COUNTIES.

As appears from the statements of accounts between the State and the several counties, made on the first day of July, the balances¹ in favor of the State amounted to $162,526 63, while those in favor of the several counties reached $616,814 38, showing a net balance at that time against the State of $453,287 75.

COUNTY TREASURERS.

Except from the counties of Charlevoix and Houghton, the County Treasurers made their returns of delinquent taxes within the time limited by law therefor. The returns from Charlevoix were not received at this office until the twentieth day of June, and from Houghton not until the twenty-fifth day of July.

The case of the Treasurer of Houghton county, Seth Rees; is such that the duty to bring it specially to your notice seems imperative. Persistent and continued neglect on his part of official duty, renders it impossible to transact necessary business between this department and Houghton county.

The delinquent taxes of Houghton county for the year 1869 were not returned to this office until July 5, 1870. The Legislature, at the extra session in July, 1870, by Act No. 6, Laws of 1870, legalized the return, and directed that the lands be advertised and offered for sale. The directions of the law were complied with. The County Treasurer, however, failed to make his return of the sales until long after the time fixed by law, and the Auditor General to get from him the money received at such sale.

¹ At the November settlement, the aggregate of balances against the State was $384,564 69, and in favor of the State $233,376 51, reducing the net balance against the State to $151,188 18.

The returns of delinquent taxes of Houghton county for the year 1870 were again so late as to prevent the advertising and sale of the lands, the return not reaching this office until July 25, 1871. Pending the time the tax returns should have been in this office, applications for the payment of the taxes against lands lying in said county were frequent. The parties making such applications were notified of the non-receipt of the returns, their money held—except when ordered returned—for the discharge of the taxes when the return should be received. So far as not discharged under these applications, or by payment to the County Treasurer, the return of taxes from Houghton county was rejected.

The County Treasurer, in the collection of taxes and redemption money, and in conducting the sale of lands for delinquent taxes, acts as the agent of the State, making the collections and conducting the sale under the direction of the Auditor General. As such an agent, Seth Rees has so long neglected his law-imposed duties, that the neglect can only be construed as a refusal on his part to perform those duties, and such refusal can hardly require less than that the place now held by him be transferred to safer, prompter, more reliable hands; and in the interest of the State the consideration of such a transfer is hereby brought to your notice.

WILLIAM HUMPHREY,
Auditor General.
